Existing Hockey Canada User

Register a participant

-  Register an existing participant
Already participated in organized hockey as a player, coach, official or volunteer.
-  Register a new participant
Never participated in organized hockey.
-  I don't know
I don't know if I participated in organized hockey.

If you have coach before or played in adult league hockey you will have an existing record in Hockey Canada database. If you select the first or third item, you can lookup your account by using your Name and Birthdate.

You may be prompted for an Address Change, if the address shown is the same address you currently live at, you can select No.

Address change

Our system detected an address change

The address [REDACTED] is different than what we have for this player. Would you like to notify the registrar of this address change?
